

Alison Lalieu

Leadership Performance Expert
Executive NeuroCoach. Mentor. Facilitator. Trainer
Emotional Intelligence Advanced Practitioner
Conversational Intelligence[®] Practitioner

As the CEO of UBalancer Solutions, Alison leads a mastermind community of skilled Executive Emotional Intelligence (EQ) and NeuroCoaches. As the only Preferred Partner of Six Seconds (a Global EQ Network) in Queensland, and only one of a handful of practicing Advanced EQ Practitioners globally, is a highly acclaimed global thought leader EQ who is passionate about revitalising leaders and teams so they connect to their fullest potential.

Alison recently authored a ground-breaking, transformational EQ profiling report, the Survey of Emotional Intelligence - Leading Through Change (SEI LTC) aimed at supporting leaders across the globe to thrive through change and bring their teams along on a positive, exciting and energising journey. The publishing of this report has positioned Alison as one of the most sought after Change Leadership Specialist Coaches in Australia and Overseas.

Alison is passionate about developing emotionally intelligent, AGILE leaders who are skilled in the art and neuroscience of conversation, who foster safe and trusting cultures in an innovative, creative, engaging and fun way. She draws on world-class tools, frameworks and strategies to support leaders to improve relationships, communication, confidence, influence, engagement, well-being and most importantly performance.

Alison is also a Flow and Performance Consultant with the global Entrepreneurs Institute, and skilled in helping leaders to grow trust and 'flow' with their teams, partners and customers.

Alison works internationally, facilitating workshops & training in Asia, South Africa, India, UK, New Zealand, Singapore and the United Arab Emirates. She was a speaker at the Six Seconds 2018 EQ summit in Dubai and delivered keynotes at the University of Queensland, Griffith University, (Australia), Sarina Russo Institute (Australia), Amity University (United Arab Emirates), and the Department of Human Services (Canberra) and 2018 DEX Conference (Sydney).

"As a Coach, I enjoy forming strong alliances with my clients, to gain more insight into their current situation and their vision; to facilitate connection to explore the possibility of change and to support them in finding their own path forward".

Based in Brisbane.

Testimonial

"It is my great privilege to be participating in coaching with Alison from UBalancer Solutions. My sessions with Alison have provided great insight into EQ and Conversational Intelligence (C-IQ), and have enhanced my skills to confidently and capably influence constructive conversations.

I've especially enjoyed exploring what it is to be an inspirational leader. I am grateful that Alison has encouraged me to articulate my 'noble goal', to nurture and develop my networks, and to practice and encourage big picture thinking. Alison has given me the confidence and encouragement to be the leader I aspire to be."

Why Coaching?

"I am passionate about connecting leaders to their potential so that the world feels renewed leadership presence, infused with values and purpose.

Coaching is an inspirational, shared journey of discovery – and provides clients with the chance to explore and create a road map for personal and professional leadership development.

My hope is for my clients to thrive, and I feel thankful to be in a position to motivate & champion them as they strive toward attaining their dream, no matter what that may be".
